

Strong minds build strong teams.

Life can be demanding — from long work hours or stressful situations to financial pressures and family responsibilities. You don't have to face it alone.

First Stop Health virtual therapy is a confidential, convenient tool available to you.

- Support from a licensed therapist
- Solution-focused support

Seeking support doesn't have to mean something is wrong. Take care of your mental health — just like you take care of your health and those around you.

For emergency situations, dial 911.

Reasons to reach out.

Navigating new parenthood

Relationship issues

Substance use

Anxiety and depression

Life changes and worries

Stressful situations

Grief and loss

And more